

Fields of Athenry

By a [F] lonely prison wall

I [Bb] heard a young girl [F] call-[C7]ing
[F] Michael they are [Bb]taking you a-[C7]way
For you [F]stole Trevelyn's [Bb] corn
So the [F] young might see the [C7] morn.
Now a prison ship lies waiting in the [F]bay.

[F]Low [Bb] lie the [F] Fields of Athenry
Where once we watched the small free birds [C7] fly.
Our [F] love was on the [Bb] wing we had [F] dreams and songs to [C7] sing
It's so lonely 'round the Fields of Athen-[F]ry.

By a lonely prison wall

I [Bb] heard a young man [F] call-[C7]ing
[F] Nothing matters [Bb] Mary when your [C7]free,
Against the [F] famine and the [Bb] Crown
I [F] rebelled they ran me [C7] down
Now you must raise our child with digni-[F]ty.

[F] Low [Bb] lie the [F] Fields of Athenry
Where once we watched the small free birds [C7] fly.
Our [F] love was on the [Bb] wing we had [F] dreams and songs to [C7]sing
It's so lonely 'round the Fields of Athen-[F]ry.

By a lonely harbour wall

She [Bb] watched the last star [F] fall-[C7]ing
As that [F] prison ship sailed [Bb] out against the [C7] sky
Sure she'll [F] wait and hope and [Bb] pray
For her [F] love in Botany [C7] Bay
It's so lonely 'round the Fields of Athen-[F]ry.

[F] Low [Bb] lie the [F] Fields of Athenry
Where once we watched the small free birds [C7] fly.
Our [F] love was on the [Bb] wing we had [F] dreams and songs to [C7] sing
It's so lonely 'round the Fields of Athen-[F]ry
{Slowly}[C7] It's so lonely 'round the Fields of Athen-[Bb x 6]ry [F]
